

indianas no calling law has really been a great releife for those who do not care to be harrassed every waking minute of the day i feel if i want to use their product or service i will contact them so please leave our law as it stands its nice to answer the phone and not here these messages thank you